

Inis Mona

Various Artists

Welcome to the land of questions
Welcome to the isle of lore
Where the veil came crumbling down There it all began, the germination
Unveiling a cryptic door
There it was revealed, hopes and aspirations
Unclosing an enthralled door Escalate the sense
Enhancing to join the dawn I close my eyes, Inis Mona
And reminisce of those balmy days
I moon o'er you, Inis Mona
As long as I breathe, I'll call you my home 20 years I have walked your barrows
Years of emulous youth
I followed the path of the wise There it all was sown, the inspiration
Removing the seven seals
There it was revealed, enigma and freedom
Unclosing an unseen door
