36 Hours

Yashin

Maybe let the doll house burn
Maybe I can hit and run
Maybe love was flicking through a magazine
Goes away two moons agree?
Starting over is for free
Maybe now I learn to taste the air I breathe
Feel the earth begin to move
Underneath my buckle shoe
Maybe this is just exactly who I am
Taxi's crawling up the hill
Take me where the world stands still Away from where the air is frozen in your hands
Oh, 36 hours away
36 hours away
In the moonlight
36 hours away
36 hours away
and it's over
In the middle going south
Dirty hands and empty mouth
I am indicating left and pulling out
Turn the map the other way

Through the hope and misery
And tilt the wheel towards the white lights up ahead
Oh 36 hours away
36 hours away
in the moonlight
36 hours away
36 hours away
and it's over
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Lalalala
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Lalalala

Oh 36 hours away
36 hours away
36 hours away
Oh 36 hours away
36 hours away
and it's over
and it's over
