Proof

Mark Tremonti

Hide it like another shame
So we may start again
Reach inside and tear away
You pray now for the end
Try to find another goal, while others are erased
Feed it like another soul
OhLost
Is the proof now
Gone
Is our way out
Time and time againMourn it like another gone
Another passed away
Know that we have just begun, to forge a better day
Open like another door
It's feeling right again
Sold it like another soulLost
Is the proof now
Wasted all again
Gone
Is our way out
Time and time againLost
Is the proof now
Wasted all again
Gone
Is our way out
Time and time againLost
Is the proof now
Wasted all again
Gone
Is our way out
Time and time againLost
Is the proof now
Wasted all again
Gone
Is our way out
Time and time and time and time again
