This Suffering

Billy Talent

Like a target drawn across my chest
She's a bullet in Russian roulette
You said you'd never turn your back on me
(Rescue me, rescue me)
Would you stand by me and bury me?
(Bury me)Why don't we end this lie?
I can't pretend this time
I need a friend to find my broken mind
Before it falls to piecesEvery time
(This suffering)
You try to leave me blind
(This suffering)You'll never close my eyes
(This suffering)
You'll never close my eyes and watch me dieAnd when she spins the bottle round and round
Every time it leaves me gagged and bound
You said you'd never turn your back on me
(Rescue me, rescue me)
Would you stand by me and bury me?
(Bury me)Why don't we end this lie
I can't pretend this time
I need a friend to find my broken mind
Before it falls to piecesEnd this lie
(This suffering)
I can't pretend this time
(This suffering)I need a friend
(This suffering)
To find my broken mind
Before it falls to piecesEvery time
(This suffering)
You try to leave me blind
(This suffering)You'll never close my eyes
(This suffering)
You'll never close my eyes and watch me dieMisery won't get the best of me
'Cause now I'm calling
Yes, I'm calling on your bluff, yeahMisery won't get the best of me
'Cause now I'm calling
Yes, I'm calling on your bluff
Don't turn the cards, I've had enoughWhy don't we end this lie
I can't pretend this time

I need a friend to find my broken mind
Before it falls to piecesEvery time
(This suffering)
You try to leave me blind
(This suffering)You'll never close my eyes
(This suffering)
You'll never close my eyes and watch me dieEnd this lie
(This suffering)
I can't pretend this time
(This suffering)I need a friend
(This suffering)
To find my broken mind
Before it falls to piecesEvery time
(This suffering)
You try to leave me blind
(This suffering)You'll never close my eyes
(This suffering)
You'll never close my eyes and watch me die
