

My Niggaz (feat. Ty Dolla $ign)

Trae tha Truth

Yeah*

God bless the dead[Hook: ~R Kelly~]

Even tho you gone you will always be my nigga

Yeah we made it home I'm still missing you my nigga

I'm feeling like the time it was wrong my nigga

Do your shilling down saying carry on my nigga

Sometimes my light skin get long my nigga

Sometimes I feel God did me wrong my nigga

So I had to write a song my nigga

Just to let you know that'cha still my nigga[Chorus:]

I wish, I wish, I wish (woah why)

I wish, I wish, I wish (still my nigga)

I wish, I wish, I wish (woah why)

I wish, I wish, I wish (still my nigga)

I wish, I wish, I wish (woah why)

I wish, I wish, I wish (still my nigga)

I wish, I wish, I wish (woah why)

I wish, I wish, I wish[Verse 1:]

What's been up with'cha homie, I know it's been a minute

I'm going through it thinking how the fuck it ever ended

I'm feeling like it wouldn't meant for them to come and get'cha

Damn it goin be hard to expect it knowing I wouldn't with'cha (fuck)

I only pray that'chu in heaven I'm going through hell

It ain't easy fighting with pain when you know I'm so well

Sometimes I wish I can see you and just talk

Grab my kicks and giva fuck where we going and just walk

But instead it's like I'm all alone, everything going wrong

This shit got me confused, like were the fuck is home

I spend my nice away in places where I don't belong

Today I got the right to hurt I'm sick of being strong

Memories of me and you left me in touch with anger

Now me and my smile look at each other like we total strangers

It's like I'm running on emotion covered up with pride

The day you left the day that something inside of me died[Hook][Chorus][Verse 2:]

A couple hours on my knees praying heavy til I fall asleep

Struggling to live still I'm trying seven days a week

Looking at this picture of you only got me stressing hard

Tho I know it's wrong I feel like who am I to question God (who am I)

I only wish that I can bring you back my nigga

You kept it real so I'm a do just that my nigga
Today I'm here but nothing guarantee the latest
Shit I just got on the news and seen they just murdered the homie Gatta
They say the time here wounds in the hands of life
Mine a came and when I feeling like I missed it twice
I know we sacrifice but why you had to pay the price
Homie it was me and you but now it's me and rainy nights
And when I die it's where we pick up
You more than a brother don't ever once think I would switch up
I'm feel like I'm nothing but yet I stand when other niggas out here thanking I knew it when half ain't shown up at'cha way
And nothing real about[Hook][Chorus]
