

A Fool For Your Stockings

ZZ Top

Is it you again outside
Just banging on the front door?
You say you had enough
Now you're comin' back for more But that's alright
I said that, "That's alright"
I may not want to admit it
I'm just a fool for your stockings I believe Now I don't mind when you send money
And bring your girlfriends with you
But how could one be so thoughtless to try
And handle less than two? But that's alright
I said that, "That's alright, baby"
I may not want to admit it
I'm just a fool for your stockings I believe, yea Now I'm tellin' everybody
It seems too good to be true
Sweet things can always get sweeter
I know mine did, how about you? Yes, it's alright
I said, "Yes it, yes it is, that's alright"
I may not want to admit it
I'm just a fool for your stockings I believe
Admit it
