Messages

Filthy Dukes

It's been so long, nice to see you
Won't be long before I come back home
When the plane lands will you reach me
Will you call me on the telephone?
Tell my son I wish, I never yelled at him yesterday
'Cause every thing's changed
Radar signal seeking you but finding nothing at all, hey
But they'll hardly call the cavalry
There's something happening, hey, hey, goodbye
Goodbye mother, tell my daughter have to leave
Get off the telephone, there's a problem
Sinking feeling, heroes died and plastic armor on
Tell my son I wish, I never yelled at him yesterday
'Cause every thing's changed
And you, you gave me all you had
I hope someday you will be happy without me, goodbye
Lost in a world that's quickly going bad
You were there so strengthened to the ground
Angels and the demons fight to save the lives
While all the others cry
As for you, you made my life worth living, hey
I pray one day you will be happy without me
Hey, goodbye
Hey, goodbye

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/