That's What I Like About You

Tim Obrien

I like a woman who is crazy about me
I like a woman who can live without me too
That's what I like about youI like a woman who will lay down beside me
I like a woman who will stand up to me too
That's what I like about youDon't want a woman to be my twin
Under my thumb, under my skin
Don't want a woman like a shadow on the ground
With nothing else to do but follow me aroundI like a woman who will cry on my shoulder
Who don't mind if I cry sometimes too
That's what I like about youI like a woman who can make it happen
Who can keep me laughing
When my whole world breaks in two
That's what I like about youYou can be soft and honey, you can be strong
Maybe that's the reason we get along
Everything you do, you do just right
You're tender in love and tough in a fightI like a woman who will lay down beside me
Stand up to me, she'll cry on my shoulder
She's a crazy 'bout me, she can't live without me too
That's what I like about, can't live my life without
That's what I like about you
