Love Will

Tanya Tucker

Well, money won't dry your tears
And words ain't always true
Flowers are nice to look at
But they won't satisfy youBut, honey, love will Honey, love will
A whole lotta good things won't
But honey, love willA candy won't give you sweet dreams
Letters can't hold you tight
Phone calls, they can't touch you
Or keep you warm at nightHoney, love will, ooh
Honey, love will
A whole lotta good things won't
But honey, love willYou may stop your heart from fallin'
All in self-defense
When all you need is somethin'
To build your confidenceHoney, love will
Honey, love will
A whole lotta good things won't
But, honey, love will
Tell me about it nowCredit cards won't forgive you
And fashions don't always fit
Wishin' won't sweep you off your feet
Not one little bitBut, honey, love will
Honey, love will
A whole lotta good things won't
But honey, love willA whole lotta good things won't
Honey, love will
