Beautiful

Ivy

Can you, can you, can you kill me please?Sprawled across the bedroom floor
Dripping sweat from every pore
Helplessly, you reach for me
But I'm already, I'm already goneDon't you look beautiful?Where's that smirk, I've had to face?
Crawled away in sweet disgrace
Now you say you need me so
Don't tell me what I already knowDon't you look beautiful?
Don't you look beautiful?
Begging me to finish what I startOpen mouth and aching fingers
Bloodshot eyes, so filled with fear
If only you could see yourself from hereDon't you look beautiful?
Don't you look beautiful?
Don't you look beautiful?
Begging me to finish what I startDon't you look beautiful?
Isn't it beautiful?
Begging me to finish what I start
Begging me to finish what I start
