

Beautiful

Ivy

Can you, can you, can you kill me please? Sprawled across the bedroom floor
Dripping sweat from every pore
Helplessly, you reach for me
But I'm already, I'm already gone Don't you look beautiful? Where's that smirk, I've had to face?
Crawled away in sweet disgrace
Now you say you need me so
Don't tell me what I already know Don't you look beautiful?
Don't you look beautiful?
Begging me to finish what I start Open mouth and aching fingers
Bloodshot eyes, so filled with fear
If only you could see yourself from here Don't you look beautiful?
Don't you look beautiful?
Don't you look beautiful?
Begging me to finish what I start Don't you look beautiful?
Isn't it beautiful?
Begging me to finish what I start
Begging me to finish what I start
