

Getting Ready For Christmas Day

Paul Simon

Yeah, well getting ready
Yeah, oh yeah
Getting ready, yeah
Getting ready From early in November to the last week of December
I got money matters weighing me down
Whoa, the music may be merry but it's only temporary
I know Santa Claus is coming to town In the days I work my day job
In the nights I work my night
But it all comes down to working man's pay
Getting ready, I'm getting ready, ready for Christmas Day Getting ready for Christmas
Now let me tell you, namely the undertaker
He's getting ready for your body
Not only that, the jailer, he's getting ready for you Christmas Day, hmm? And not only the jailer
But the lawyer, the police force
Now getting ready for Christmas Day
And I want you to bear it in mind I got a nephew in Iraq, it's his third time back
But it's ending up the way it began
With the luck of a beginner
He'll be eating turkey dinner
On some mountain top in Pakistan Getting ready, oh, we're getting ready
For the power and the glory
And the story of the Christmas Day Getting ready for Christmas
Done made it up in your mind
That I'm going New York, Philadelphia, Chicago
I'm going on a trip, getting ready for Christmas Day But when Christmas come
Nobody knows where you'll be
You might ask me
I may be layin' in some lonesome grave
Getting ready for Christmas Day Getting ready oh we're getting ready
For the power and the glory
And the story of the Christmas Day
Yes, we're getting ready Getting ready, ready for your prayers
I'm going and see my relatives in a distant land
Getting ready, getting ready for Christmas Day If I could tell my Mom and Dad
That the things we never had Never mattered we were always okay
Getting ready, oh ready, ready for Christmas Day Ready, getting ready
For the power and the glory
And the story of the Christmas Day
