And Then

Anja Garbarek

Unpack moments
The girl in a red coat turnsPassing
Entering
Going placesBring her name
Under the chain of lights
Kneeling down
She throws herself into soundPassing
Entering
Going placesSeen from above
This is instant living
Seen from above
This is instant living
Seen from aboveThis is the beginning
Of the night
And memories are watching
As she does the moveThey glide through
Holding letters with collected timePassing
Entering
Going placesPassing
Entering
Going placesSeen from above
This is instant living
This is instant living
This is instant living
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
At first and then, na-na na-na-na
