

Don't Let Your Baby Catch You

Jackson 5

Don't let your baby catch you
Don't let your baby catch you
    Fooling around
You just might lose the best thing
    That you ever found
Don't let your baby catch you
Fooling around Oh, the nights are lonely
    Twice as cold
Without my baby's hand to hold
My happiness is fading away
    Just like a thief
    I tried to steal a kiss
    From another pretty miss
My baby was the price that I paid Now listen, fellows
    (Think twice)
Think twice if you have cheating on your mind
    (Watch your step)
    Remember
The punishment will fit your crime Don't let your baby catch you
    Don't let your baby catch you
    Don't let your baby catch you
    Fooling around
You just might lose the best thing
    That you ever found
    Don't let your baby catch you
Fooling around Oh, I hope that now you let me be
    Do right not wrong in full indeed
I'm gonna crawl back all the way on my knees
And if that's no use I'd get to move
And settle down and come to her
    Oh, before I even say please
    If I get one more chance
My life would be as good as you
And I would not forget the days
The sun would not shine through Don't let your baby catch you
    Don't let your baby catch you
    Don't let your baby catch you
    Fooling around

Oh, no
Can't you not, can't you not, can't you not, babe
Oh, don't let her
Oh, your baby catch you
You might lose the best thing
That you ever found
Tell about it, Mike
You're crazy about your baby
And she's crazy about you
Just think of what you'd do to her
If she was untrue
Don't let your baby catch you
Don't let your baby catch you
Don't let your baby catch you
All right
Don't let your baby catch you
Fooling around
You just might lose the best thing
That you ever found
Don't let your baby catch you
Fooling around
Don't let it
Don't let it
Stop
Stop
Don't let your baby catch you
Fooling around
You just might lose the best thing
That you ever found
Don't let your baby catch you
Fooling around
