

Releasing the Demons

Godsmack

What do you see when your in the dark and the demonds come for you?

If only you could have seen how fucked up my life used to be then everything starts to change
supposedly healing my pain
i never thought i would feel this way
i never thought i'd see a day id run away from anything or anywhere or anyone
It's all these demonds taunting me
its all these little things trapped inside of me realeasing me from all my sins

Its taking me all of my anger
And taking me all of my hate
And learning how my life came together

Releasing the demonds again!

And now i look thorough my minds Im see where my past meets the rest
And its always disturbed by these voices Echoing inside of my head

If only you could have seen
how fucked up my life used to be
supposedly healing my pain
i never thought i'd see a day id run away from anything or anywhere or anyone
It's all these demonds taunting me
its all these little things trapped inside of me
realeasing me from all my sins

Its taking me all of my anger
And taking me all of my hate

And learning how my life came together

Releasing the demons again, again, again

Facing the days and i grow into my own
