California Sun

The Catalysts

One two three
Just three days and I'm missing you more than I thought I would I missing you more than I like to say
I'm hanging on a hope, swinging from a rope it's all the same
My biggest mistake was letting you get away
Oh baby, California sun so bright and beautiful
Yeah, but that was yesterday
California sun, how'd you slip away?
California sun, California sun
Been about a week and I finally fall asleep as the sun comes in Through the broken blinds
Laying all alone sinking like stone, wish you were here
Can't sleep you of my mind
Oh baby, California sun, so bright and beautiful
Yeah, but that was yesterday
California sun, how'd you slip away?
California sun
I'm searching door to door sunset down to the shore
Where'd you disappear?
I wonder were you go, I don't really want to know
You can find me here
California sun, so bright and beautiful
Yeah, but that was yesterday
California sun, how'd you slip away?
California sun
California sun, so bright and beautiful
Yeah, but that was yesterday
California sun, how'd you slip away?
California sun
California sun
California sun

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/