

Red Eyes

Intoxigation Blues Band

What are you waiting for?
The day is gone
I said I'm waiting for dawn
What are you aiming for out here alone?
I said I'm aiming for home
Holding on, holding on
With red eyes what are you looking for?
With red eyes, red eyes
All of my days are spent within this skin
Within this cage that I'm in
Nowhere feels safe to me, nowhere feels home
Even in crowds I'm alone
Holding on, holding on
Every now and then I see you dreaming
Every now and then I see you cry
Every now and then I see you reaching
Reaching for the other side
What are you waiting for?
