Apologize

Elisa

Been a hard day
But I?m feeling sane
Though they point at me
With their fingers of blame
My life?s derailed
And I know it?s a shame
Could get on track
But is that my aim
Apologize, destined to apologize
Apologize, destined to apologize
It?s a fresh day
But adrenalin?s low
And I ask myself
Should I just let go
Wanting to sleep
But it?s to-and-fro
If I take that leap
Will they even know?
Apologize, destined to apologize
Apologize, destined to apologize
Can?t read the future
No believing in miracles
I?m just stepping on water
Stumbling into some order

Can?t read the future
No believing in miracles
I?m just stepping on water
Stumbling into some order
Yeah just stepping on water
Making it through
And I?m satisfied
When I hear them say
I?ve death defied
When they crowd round
I still wanna hide
But my head is straight
And I?m laughing inside
Apologize, destined to apologize

Apologize, destined to apologize
Can?t read the future
No believing in miracles
I?m just stepping on water
Stumbling into some order
Can?t read the future
No believing in miracles
