Grizelda

Yeasayer

I know, I know every hour of the day
There's a whisper inside of her brain
Telling me who to kill, telling me who will liveI'd do what she says, son, I'd do what you will I'd do what you say and I'd do what you will
I'd do it again, again, again, againI know, I know every hour you're awake
They'll be upping the price on your head
And now you're in reach so watch where you sleepThey'll search day and night, can't forget what you did
You'll put up a fight, don't regret how you lived
A means to an end, end, an end, endStep inside the box, pretend we won't
Don't scream again, no
Go to sleep, we'll surely find you now
Really then
