I Loved The Way She Said L.A.

Spitalfield

Say the things you say
And youre dreaming like you do
You know sometimes circles run around you
Hey, now lets be honest, I really think its trueYou know sometimes we all bend the rules
You've runned a life
You've been around
You love to live, to hate this townAnd I hope and dream just like you do
Yeah, weve been here twice before
You want it to mean so much more
And I hope that every thing goes throughShe goes to California, oh
California is not so far
When I close my eyes and wonder where you are
And you wish upon a star
Two thousand miles doesn't seem so farYou play the games you play
You win sometimes, you loose
You know sometimes walls run into you
Now you got me thinking and I really think it's trueThe sun shines sometimes just for you
You've runned a life
You've been around
You love to live, to hate this townAnd I hope and dream just like you do
Yeah, weve been here twice before
You want it to mean so much more
And I hope that every thing goes throughShe goes to California, oh
California is not so far
When I close my eyes and wonder where you are
And you wish upon a star
Two thousand miles doesn't seem so farSo far, so far, so far
