

Sugar, You

Oh Honey

Sugar don't you change a thing
You're already everything I want
Sugar don't you change a thing
Can't you see you're everything I'm notHEY YOU
You are something beautiful
Floating through my mind like you do
HEY YOU
You are something wonderful
Wish you could see you like I do
You're already everything I want
Can't you see you're everything I'm notSugar, You I wanna get to know ya
Sugar, You I wish that I could hold ya
You're busy playing nice you sweeten up my life
I'm here making eyes tryna keep you by my side
Sugar, You I wanna get to know yaHoney I won't let this fail we could move just like a snail at first
No Honey I won't let this fail
We'll ride it out we'll laugh until it hurts, til it hurtsHEY YOU
You are something magical
Lighting up the dark like you do
HEY YOU
You are something spiritual
Wish you could see you like I do
You're already everything I want
Can't you see you're everything I'm notSugar stay in my eyes
I've been looking for you my whole life
Sugar you're right on time
I've been waiting for you my whole life
