Kerbenok

I've sold out every memory I have borrowed
I had bought from you
These pictures run like water to dilute me
Lay me over you
And I thought that this would be so right

And everyone and everyone
Is better than you
And everyone and everyone

I've felt each slow perversion fosters
Dying killed the truth in me
Gone quietly gone completely cold reminder what
You tried to be
And I knew that this would be so right

And everyone and everyone
Is better than you
And everyone and everyone
And everyone and everyone

And it's hard and it's hated
And it's hard
And if so and if so

And everyone and everyone
Is better than you
And everyone and everyone
And everyone and everyone
Is better than you
Better than you.....etc.

And if so and if so
