A Warning To The Curious

The Coral

A warning to the curious
A message for the meek
It's better not to be in love
Than to be in betweenYou, if I never had you
Then I wouldn't feel the way I do now
If I never had youIt was just a joke you said
But now I'm warning you
On whose grounds do you dare to tread
When all your plans fall through?You, if I never had you
Then I wouldn't feel the way I do now
If I never had youA warning to the curious
A message for the meek
It's better not to be in love
Than to be in betweenYou, if I never had you
Then I wouldn't feel the way I do now
If I never had youIf I never had you
If I never had you
If I never had you
