Coral Fang

The Distillers

It's come to take from the rope
It feels so still I could just die
It's going to reach up inside
Oh how the blood stains well on whiteUh whaoh the coral fang
Sinking in to make you well
Uh whaoh the coral fang
Sinking in to make you illIt's come to rape what you hide
It fills the years with reprise, disgust, disguise
I'll burn my own funeral pyre
An from your mouth I will rise out, rise outUh whaoh the coral fang
Sinking in to make you well
Uh whaoh the coral fang
Sinking in to make you illWhen the fang sinks down in
Make your eyes white and roll right into him
When the coral stains the skin
Disease is cheap scars are polished cleanUh whaoh the coral fang
Sinking in to make you well
Uh whaoh the coral fang
Sinking in to take at will
