Night Rider

Draper

There's something building in the air
I can feel it
I can feel it

It's pressing down on me and
I can barely breath
Oh can you feel it?

And I'm surrounded everywhere
I can feel it
I can feel it

It's creeping up on me but
What I just cant see
Oh say you feel it

I'm falling into this unknown
Can you feel it?
Can you feel it?

There's nothing I can do but
To give into the black

And then the bass kicks in (x4)

Bass kicks in
I can't take it
And now I lose control
I can't shake it

Can't fight it anymore
In this almighty realm
I'm falling into this unknown
Can you feel it?
Can you feel it?

There's nothing I can do but to give into the black
And then the bass kicks in
And then the bass kicks in
And then the bass kicks in

And then the bass

Bass kicks in
I can't take it
And now I lose control
I can't shake it

I can feel it
Ya I can feel it
Ya I can feel it

(Ya he's a night rider)

I can feel it
Ya I can feel it
I can feel it

There's nothing I can do but to give into the black
And then the bass (x4)

Bass kicks in
And then the bass kicks in
And then the bass kicks in
And then the bass

Bass kicks in
I can't take it
And now I lose control
I can't shake it

And as the crowd begins to fade
It's left me breathless
Left me helpless wanting more

But just as quickly as it came
It disappears and I'm left lying on the floor...
But I still feel it.
