In Too Far

Acceptance

The worst time
To hit you with my first line, no
Everything seemed fine
When I hold you like youre one-of-a-kindYou said you were a sure sign
It's feeling like the last time
Play it back, it's going over and over
Give it up and pull me through, all of this to tell youI've been thinking, take me now, I'm in too far
Can't stop feeling, doesn't matter who you are
This could be my last goodbye, you could stay, I'll be alright
Ive been thinking, take me now, I'm in too farIf I might say
All of this seems to float away from
Your lips when they're kissing me
And your hips when leaving me forThe last time, I'm thinking of the first time, oh
The first time, I'm thinking of the last time
Play it back, it's going over and over
You're trying me so I'm moving on, all of this to tell youI've been thinking, take me now, I'm in too far
Can't stop feeling, doesn't matter who you are
This could be my last goodbye, you could stay, I'll be alright
Ive been thinking, take me now, I'm in too farThis is where we left off and I'm trying hard to let go
This is where we left off and I'm still waiting to see if youll showThe first time, I'm thinking of the last time
The last time, I'm thinking of the first timeIve been thinking, take me now, I'm in too far
Can't stop feeling, doesn't matter who you are
This could be my last goodbye, you could stay, I'll be alright
Ive been thinking, take me now, I'm in too far
