

Some People

Authority Zero

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

As you go, oh oh, yeah, yeah On your way, throughout it all
Without a questioning of consequence in store
And all the things that you wanted
Made for a better way of everything they're using you for That's when you feel like you're dying
And want to find some place to go
And then you say that you'll find a better way
Like so many times before, as you go So many profiting, from your misfortune
And a broken intuition brought abuse
They're gloating in your face and stand so prominent
Now asking, how you never have a chance without a clue That's when you feel like you're dyin'
And wanna find some place to go
And then you say, that you've found a better way
Like so many times before, as you go Look at the faces that you trust
And put them up inside your head
And out of all the faces that you see
Who's gonna be there in the end? And out of all the times that you had turned
Like so many times before
Who's gonna be the one to turn their back
Runnin' out that door? Some people, trying on their fake-ass two faces
Sayin', they only want what's best for you
But hidden deep down within all their smiles
Was depravity arising soon That's when you feel like you're dyin'
And wanna find some place to go
And then you say, that you've found a better way
Like so many times before, as you go Look at the faces that you trust
And put them up inside your head
And out of all the faces that you see
Who's gonna be there in the end? And out of all the times that you had turned
Like so many times before
Who's gonna be the one to turn their back
Runnin' out that door? How many people want to find the time
And want to make your fantasies come true?

How many people want to tell you lies
And want to tell you what you're supposed to do? And when are you gonna realize
It's all just in your head?
Think for you, for yourself instead Far away, far from home
From the truth and the lies
Far away from the things that they tell you
Well, that's where you'll find That's when you feel like you're tryin'
And then you've found some place to go
And now you say that you've found a better way
Like so many times before, as you go Look at the faces that you trust
And put them up inside your head
And out of all the faces that you see
Who's gonna be there for you in the end? And out of all the times that you had turned
Like so many times before
Who's gonna be the one to turn their back
Runnin' out that door?
Well out that door, well out that door, well out that door
