Unfixable

Dagames

Hey friend, welcome back again
To a night in our circus, hall of fame
Such a shame you won't be around for long
So we might as well sing our song!So basically you have another 5 alerting nights
No frights, no bites, but a visious site
We're controlled by an evil insanity
This profanity has now vanity!Welcome my friend
To a night in our circus world
We're looking for a technician
And you're just the guy we've heard of
We're held away by wiring now
We're wanting out
Can you shock us
You can tame us
But we want your body now!
Now behave
For the voices in the halls
Will try to eat you up alive
So before the show begins
Please don't hold against our sins
Cause by dawn you'll be crumbling in your skin!We are the tortured
We're not your friends
So long as we're not visible
We are unfixableWe are the curses
Crumbled inside
Look left or right
We're unthinkable
Our fate is now unfixable
We are the tortured
We're not your friends
So long as we're not visible
We are unfixableWe are the curses
Crumbled inside
We're unthinkable
Our fate is now unfixableUnfixableWelcome back friend
To a night of debauchery
As you saw from all the hardware
You're inclined to think the worst of us

But you've got the knowledge to begin the chiming bell
So saddle up
Your hiding skills
And start your night in hell!Pay good
Attention to your friends that creep around
They don't exactly
Act the same so zap them with control shocks
They seem to like the buzz
And then they start to play
So keep pushing, you'll be wishing
You could end this damn dismay!Listen clear
Don't listen to that mad man
He'll kill you from the inside
So before we take our bows
Please remember your own vows
That tonight we'll be crawling in your skin!We are the tortured
We're not your friends
So long as we're not visible
We are unfixableWe are the curses
Crumbled inside
We're unthinkable
Our fate is now unfixableWe are the tortured
We're not your friends
So long as we're not visible
We are unfixableWe are the curses
Crumbled inside
We're unthinkable
Our fate is now unfixableNow open your heart
And give it to me!
Breath new insanity!So you then read the news what did you see?
For there's no truth to defend our ghastly deeds
We have our signs to show that we're alive
But we're dead as far as they believeWe are all puppets
Taken by a jester in disguise
It's a fact without the tiesLink us together
We're family forever
Ready to show you our surpriseI can't take it
Scoop me up
Wish me dead tonight
We wanna be like you
WE WANNA BE LIKE YOU!A bad presence
Tears me down
Deep inside the core

Get it out of my mind
GET IT OUT OF MY MIND!We are all puppets
Taken by a jester in disguise
It's a fact without the ties!Link us together
We're family forever
Ready to show you our surprise!!!UnfixableWe are the tortured
We're not your friends
So long as we're not visible
We are unfixableWe are the curses
Crumbled inside
We're unthinkable
Our fate is now unfixableI can't take it
Scoop me up
Wish me dead tonight
We wanna be like you
WE WANNA BE LIKE YOU!We are all puppets
Ready to show you our surprise!!!
