Not Enough

Rj Rap

[Intro]
Gave up all of my hoes for you, gave all my pass codes to you, but that's still not enough, no it's still not enough for you. I give all my love to you, I gave all of my trust to you, but that's still not enough, no that's still not enough for you

[Verse 1]
See you want it all, you want the money, the power, the jewelry, the clothes and the car's, but you don't want your flaws, and see that's the issue that's why when you leave I don't even miss you, and that's why when you cry I don't give you tissues, and when you lean in I don't even kiss you, you do me wrong on the daily, sometimes I really think you hate me, but what the fuck did I do to you, outta all these hoes I'm still choosing you, but lately I feel like I'm losing you and it's a feeling I ain't used to, I hate when you play games like Blue's Clues we ain't right for each other who knew and I actually thought you was cool too, let me find out that you fuck with a new dude

[Chorus]
Cuz i Gave up all of my hoes for u, gave all my pass codes to, but that's still not enough, no it's still not enough for you. I give all my love to you, I gave all of my trust to you, but that's still not enough, no that's still not enough for you. x2

[Verse 2]
I fucked up when i first put my trust in u not just that but i really was in love with you, kept u laced wit the best cuz i fucked wit u, gave u my all and that still wasn't enough for u, kept it real i ain't let no one fuck wit u, i want u but i won't be no dub for u, man like cuz I don't know what's up with you, fuck it im done wit u cuz the only thing u loved is me fuckin u while u giving me the blade, girl we grown ain't got time for no games, I went out of my way even changed for the better, but you couldn't even do the same, so look just let me be in my zone, you won't give no more thoughts in my phone, I be good on my own never losing, just cooling cuz I'm feeling King on the throne, you used to say you were sick of me, now that I'm gone you sayin you missing me I don't understand, cuz when we were together I gave you my love and my trust and you took it for granted, and when i'm wit out u that money come and u have done fucked up wit this one on one, and you was my number one, but now it is fuck u i got me another one

[Chorus]
Gave up all of my hoes for u, gave all my pass codes to, but that's still not enough, no it's still not enough for you. I give all my love to you, I gave all of my trust to you, but that's still not enough, no that's still not enough for you. x2
