

All Of Me

Buckcherry

All of me please take all of me 'cause you are all I see Everything to me
When your gone I am lost I want to be forgiven
But I'm not
And if I hurt your feeling's I will stop Please don't turn away from me and have a little faith now Cause baby you were there you always seemed to care for me and this is where I belong
I never was aware and suddenly it came to be and this is what I've become Opened up my eye's and made me realize that you would take all of me Please take all of me, cause you are all I see my blue eyed ocean breeze When it all falls apart I wanna live forever don't we all It's not like we don't ever get along please don't turn away from me and have a little faith now
