You Told a Lie

Camera Obscura

If you were a season you would be in bloom
I wish I had good reason to see you soon
No need to convince me that you were a catch
I bought my ticket and so at lastWho was it that said that love conquers all?
Oh, he was a fool 'cause it doesn't add up
Should I believe you told a lie
On the way to my heart and on the way back?Are my eyes the coldest blue?
You said once this was true
If it is I don't know what I'll do
'Cause I'm stuck with them and they're stuck on youWas I quite bad that nothing could never challenged anyone
Or was I a lazy lazy snake?
Do you want me to be a gentle diplomat?
Oh, you can beg and you can pleadAre my eyes the coldest blue?
You said once this was true
And if it is I don't know what I'll do
'Cause I'm stuck with them and they're stuck on youAre my eyes the coldest blue?
You said once this was true
If it is I don't know what I'll do
'Cause I'm stuck with them and you're stuck on you'Cause I'm stuck with them and they're stuck on you
I'm stuck with them and they're stuck on you
I'm stuck with them and they're stuck on you
