Better Weather

Alien Ant Farm

The clouds have slowly come over us
They shield no sun above us
The light on me you will supply
The shine on me you will provideIt ain't so bad we can make up
Heavy clouds always break up
It don't matter I wish you better weather anyway
And if the sun doesn't break through
And there's no where to run to
We can hang around this better weather all the way
The weatherman always says so,
But there's one thing we both know
Gotta be better weather than yesterday
I know things will get better
Better than the weather
And now your the shine on me
Its not as dark as it used to be
Giving me the light I need
You cut shadows with a sun ray
And slice hope for a new day
A lightning rod can shock the sky
I'm hoping you'll recharge my lifeIt ain't so bad we can make up
Heavy clouds always break up
It don't matter I wish you better weather anyway
And if the sun doesn't break through
And there's no where to run to
We can hang around this better weather all the way
The weatherman always says so,
But there's one thing we both know
Gotta be better weather than yesterday
I know things will get better
Better than the weather
Rain is storming all over you
Every time I feel a cold chill
Stormy rain and weather balloons
Storm is coming, we'll rise above it
Clouds ain't as dark as they seem to be
Storm is coming, we'll rise above itIt ain't so bad we can make up
Heavy clouds always break up
It don't matter I wish you better weather anyway

And if the sun doesn't break through
And there's no where to run to
We can hang around this better weather all the way
The weatherman always says so,
But there's one thing we both know
Gotta be better weather than yesterday
I know things will get better
Better than the weather
