

You Just Have to Wait Now

Dave Mason

Tell me I just have to wait now
For you to make up your mind
 You say you need room
 Just to reach for the moon
And I just wanna make you mineBut you just can't seem
 To leave your past behind
 Especially in the form of man
 Whose love was a gun, held at your head
He'll shoot you with it if he canI gave you the best of my love
 That I had to give
 Now you're out on the streets
 Still tryin' to find a friendCome on, girl
 It's time to begin
 Somethin's gotta give
I hope we both win, yeahSo now you got to pick up the pieces
 Find out just where you stand
 The answers seem it has always been
In the palm of your handYou tell me I just have to wait now
 For you to make up your mind
 You say you need room
 Just to reach for the moon
And I just wanna make you mineI gave you the best of my love
 That I had to give
 Now you're out on the streets
 Still tryin' to find a friendCome on, girl
 It's time to begin
 Somethin's gotta give
I hope we both win, yeah
