

Half Asleep

Apoptygma Berzerk

I'm half asleep again. My shell is sleeping, my soul is not.

I'm still confused, to many thoughts.

I fear, I fear temptation. Weird thoughts inside my mind.

Cruel thoughts are tempting me.

I want to do what I know is wrong, and I fear, I fear temptation. Take me away, fill me with desire.

Teach me how to live a life without regret. I'm half asleep again... Something's got a grip on my mind.

Forcing me to forget about you.

Makes me feel that I have to, that I need to.

I feel, I feel temptation. Take me away...
