Save the Day

Alana Davis

I've lived my life beside an ocean
And every day I drown emotions with the tide
And no one's ever asked me why
Guess I'm silly to waste my timeI reach and stretch too far to measure
And I break myself to keep together all the time
It's a struggle to be kind
In a world that seems so blindBefore I grow too old to seize the day
Before I spread my wings and fly away
I'd like to get to see my heart at play
And see if love can't save the day
But if it's the only way can we save the day? Oh yeahAside from my faith there is no glory
And aside from truth there is no story anymore
We're all soldiers in the war
Tell me what are we fighting forIt feels like we've been here forever
As I break myself to keep together and apart
From a way that eats my heart
I don't know how it got so hardBefore I grow too old to seize the day
Before I spread my wings and fly away
I'd like to get to see my heart at play
See if love can't save the day
What if it's the only way can we save the day?[Incomprehensible]
For the love you say you're love is wrongAnd before I grow too old to seize the day
Before I spread my wings and fly away
I'd like to get to feel my heart at play
See if love can't save the day
What if it's the only way can we save the day? Oh yeah, oh yeah
