

Too Late for Hallelujah

Aslan

What have you got?
That you can leave behind
If it fits in a box
Was it a waste of time?
Do you deserve how cold you feel right now?
What have you learnt?
Did you stop to write it down?
You never needed anyone
But you need someone today
You never needed anyone
But you need someone today

[Chorus:]

When it all breaks down
When it all breaks up
And it's too late now
Too late for Hallelujah
When you burn and fall
Too late for Hallelujah

How did it taste at your table for one?
How did you dance if you never held someone?
You never asked for anything
And that's exactly what you've got
Desperately you tried to change
But every skins just feels the same

[Chorus]

I used to hear you say
Nothing can change your mind
Look at how the angels pray
Only the truth survive
Too late [2x]
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Too late for Hallelujah

[Chorus]
