

Play Me the Song

D'Sound

sun is setting fire to the sky tonight lucky are the ones who are not alone lovely boy walked me home from the bar tonight I love his smile
when he plays the guitar I'm saying; «play me the song that your father taught you fill me with peace
because I need it bad»
oh, wonderful sunset strikes me deaf and blind and I'm so relieved; there's a life after him he was young and promised me the world, you know but inside I knew it wouldn't be every goodbye is leading to a new hello now look at me - with mister T I'm singing; play me the song that your father taught you fill me with peace
because I need it bad»
oh, wonderful sunset strikes me deaf and blind and I'm so relieved; there's a life after.....
