

The Link

GOJIRA

He who learns must suffer
I want to protect myself let others
Dream, I run to a better place
Hell, illusions, see
This state of me unconscious
Cannot
Want to undertake to feel my soul
I want to build some fire
Burn myself
I decide what I see Call my name, I'll be there for you Wrong and right
I want to create things
Beyond, insight
Life
I want to build some fire
Run to myself, dive Find a link between wrong and right
Understand, you create what you are
Be the link, you are what you create
