Suncity

Violet Moss

Mary had a pretty face deep in her eyes
she was full of grace even if she was so drunk sitting by the fireplace lusted and dazed our eyes meet in haze

feeling a rush of warmth

she was on her own dancing with anyone i know she was all alone, naked swimming in the cold

Mary was my next door girl with her frizzy hair highlights in red
she was my fetish lady

she told me i need some open space but into her mess she tries to confess she was just looking a prey

fucking with every scum i know
