Angel

Grey Eye Glances

Let the night be gone
Let it go without a sound
I have seen you twice before
Nothing by chance you said
Ã‚Â
I've heard it can be seen
In the places in between
Where the meek are said to seem
To be a part of it
Ã‚Â
You said everyone cries
You said everyone flies
And the joy I keep bound
Like a secret I hide
From the spirits that move
In the time that I bide
But it hurts sometimes
Ã‚Â
Float me past the night
Show me all the currents right
Leaning on a subtle light
That brings one back again
Ã‚Â
You said everyone cries
You said everyone flies
And the joy I keep bound
Like a secret I hide
From the spirits that move
In the time that I bide
But it hurts sometimes
Ã‚Â
When I dream it's never dark
When the moon is swirling through my head
Do you come to watch me too
Do you think of me as a part of you
Heart of you, start of you
Ã‚Â
Will this last that long
Though I know it can't be wrong

You repeat you're not that strong
But that's what angels do
Ã‚Â
You said everyone cries
You said everyone flies
And the joy I keep bound
Like a secret I hide
From the spirits that move
In the time that I bide
Ã‚Â
Did you know you could fly
When you opened your eyes
Does a miracle start
Even though no one tries
After all of this time
After all it's just fine
But it hurts sometimes
