

In My Head

Michelle Chamuel & Arjun Singh

I'm reaching out without a sound
My pride falls to the floor again
Inside my mind I search to find
A place just to call my own
Deep inside Your eyes
I am blinded by Your love
Still I run so far just to find that
I'm alone again
In my head, I hear You calling me
And I can't run 'cause there's nothing left for me
When I fall You always follow me deep inside
Deep inside, deep inside of my head

I just can't last as these feelings pass
Once again I hide the pain inside
The smile wears thin and the lies begin
To bring me down again
When I run I run so far away from You
I hide the pain and all the lies deep inside again
And all my faith I put in You
This time You take it all away
Inside my head
Deep inside
My head
