

Victim of Love

The Cars

VictimShe can take you
Anywhere she wants to
She can show you things
That make you weakShe can make you think
That you're the only one
She can steal your heart
With just one winkWhy she'll hold you tight
And she won't let go
She'll make it last
And she'll make it slowShe'll tell you things
That you should not know
'Cause you're the victim
The victim of loveFramed by the night
Touched by the glove
You're the victim, yea
Victim of loveShe can freeze you
When she doesn't wanna talk
She can work it on in
Yea, she can go take a walkShe can have or leave it
She can do the skidoo
Well, you better believe it
She's having fun on youShe can hold you tight
And she won't let go
She'll make it last
And she'll make it slowShe'll tell you things
That you should not know
'Cause you're the victim
Victim of loveFramed by the night
Touched by the glove
You're the victim
Victim of love, that's rightOh, when she's calling you out
You better run to her
When she's just falling out
You'd better careOh, when she needs somebody
Oh, you better run to her
When she gives in too soon
It's just not fairOh well, she'll hold you tight
And she won't let go
She'll make it last

And she'll make it slow She'll whisper things
You'd never know
'Cause you're the victim, yea
Victim of love You're framed by the night
And touched by love
You're the victim
Victim of love Well, you better watch out
[Incomprehensible]
Victim of love Well, you're framed by the night
And touched by love
Victim of love Love, she can take you
(Victim of love)
(Victim of love) She can freeze you
(Victim of love)
