What Am I

Von Grey

What am I
What are youI always change
But thats alright
So do youYou were blessed
Blessed with breathYou are alive
Your blood runs warm
So does mineWe need to open our eyes
Look behind our unique disguises
Well be together by and by
BecauseWere all the sameYou made a bed for yourself
Down on the floor
Your bloods not warm anymore
You wont walk away
Until you see us crawl
What do you do that for?We need to open our eyes
Look behind our brilliant disguises
Well be together by and by
BecauseWere all the sameWe need to open our eyes
Look behind our different disguises
Well be together by and by
BecauseWere all the same
