Safe and Sound

Shane Nicholson

You know all that you could be
A big opportunity
And you wanna disappearThe walls won't let you sleep tonight
You're throwing the title fight
You wanna disappearWe're feeding prime-time coast to coast
The sleeping dogs, the walking ghosts
Everyone gets paper-thin
And every thing's for saleUnder the sunlight and over the ground
Maybe we'll all be safe and sound
Maybe we'll all be happy againIf everything seems to be out of control
Losing the heart in search of the soul
Just keep us all safe and soundWe know all that we could be
A big opportunity
We wanna disappearWe're learning how to play the part
For lovers of every plastic heart
Everyone gets everything
And it all goes out of styleUnder the sunlight and over the ground
Maybe we'll all be safe and sound
Maybe we'll all be happy againIf everything seems to be out of control
Losing the heart in search of the soul
Just keep us all safe and sound, oh no
Safe and sound, oh noUnder the sunlight and over the ground
Maybe we'll all be safe and sound
Maybe we'll all be happy againIf everything seems to be out of control
Losing the heart in search of the soul
Just keep us all safe and sound, oh no
Safe and sound, oh no
Safe and sound
