

Soldier (Luke Bond Remix) (feat. Roxanne Emery)

Gareth Emery

I'm gonna stand right here
I'm not ?gonna lose?
But when the sky falls down
You'll find me next to you
I'm gonna stand right here
And wait for you voice
But when the worlds at war
You know we got no choice, hey When you hear the sound
Of the world of war
You know that you can see is a big red sky
When you know you can't make it on your own
I will be your soldier When you falling down and your on the fence
I will be your shield that will keep you save
When you know you can't make it on your own
I will be your soldier When you hear the sound
Of the world of war
You know that you can see is a big red sky
When you know you can't make it on your own
I will be your soldier When you falling down and your on the fence
I will be your shield that will keep you save
When you know you can't make it on your own
I will be your soldier I will be your soldier
I will be your soldier
