

Kingdom of Torture

Embrace Destruction

dominate....who is weak cannot serve the empire in silence... like cancer that moves inside usno one can resist to the law that rules the new worldthey will exterminate the concept of your freedomno one will escape (x) the terror has just begunno one can resist you need to serve the machineno one can resist (x) you need to accept...the domination of the few that run this world ignorance is a massmediatic wall to make you a slavethe human race is gonna endin the kingdom of torture
you need to accept....the domination of the few that run this world ignorance is a massmediatic wall to make you a slaveits a social plan to control the human lifesand we are here to get sacrificedhumans will still rise from the ashes of the empirehumans will still rise from the ashes of this empire
