

We Need Starpower

The Warlocks

How does one feel to be so dead inside,
When the love of my life doesn't care or think twice.

It's a joke,
that's on me,
and I'm losin' my soul, I'm upset at the world and I'm tryin' to move on,
but I'm weak like you, like her, like us,
and I'm nervous like you, like her, like us.

Her statue like beauty keeps my mind at bay,
I wish I could laugh with you, yeah laugh with you.

That's because we need starpower, starpower, starpower.

That's because we need starpower, starpower to make our dreams come true.
