What You Want

The Flys

I know what you want
I know what you need
I know what you feelIt ain't real and...Brings me down, makes me wanna cry, oh yeah
When I forget where I come from
And I just lose my mind, oh yeahI know what you want Freedom makes you strong
I may not be right
I ain't wrong and...Brings me down, makes me wanna cry, oh yeah
When I forget where I come from
And I just lose my mind, oh yeah
But some things never change, oh yeahI know what you wantC'mon, c'mon take a ride down the back street holdin' with the flys don't ya know we go relaxin'
And dancin', checkin' out the chickens while we passin'
Stay collapsin' speak cuz why we go around blastin'We go backin' to an' all my C's I'm the boy with the new shit fuck around with DJ Rhyme and breeze
You begin to sieze the reality, I know what you want and I'm manifest destinyBrings me down, makes me wanna cry, oh yeah
When I forget where I come from
And I just lose my mind, oh yeah
But some things never change, oh yeahI know what you want
I know what you want
I know what you want
I know what you want
