

Into the Nothing

Breaking Benjamin

Screaming on the inside, I am frail and withered
Cover up the wounds that I can't hide
Walls that lie between us, the saint within the sinner
I have lost the nerve but it's all right Carry the wounded and shut your eyes
All will be forgiven, none will rise
Bury the fallen and lead the blind
I will find the lost, dead inside Into the nothing, faded and weary
I won't leave and let you fall behind
Live for the dying, heaven, hear me
I know we can make it out alive Leave me at the bottom, I am lost forever
Letters from the dead, say goodbye
Sorrow falls upon us, this will be the last time
Days begin to end but I'll get by Follow the hopeless and shut your eyes
All will be abandoned, none will shine
Gather the broken and leave this life
Lying in the earth side by side Into the nothing, faded and weary
I won't leave and let him fall behind
Live for the dying, heaven, hear me
I know we can make it out alive I'll keep you inside
Where I lead you cannot follow
Straight into the light
As my breath grows still and shallow Into the nothing, faded and weary
I won't leave and let them fall behind
Live for the dying, heaven, hear me
I know we can make it out alive Stay with me, you're all I have left
I know we can make it out alive
Stay with me, you're all I have left
I know we can make it out alive
