

Star Struck One

Smoking Popes

Evening star struck one
Wondering how come
Suddenly becoming completely undone Just as I looked in your eyes for the first time
I was already in love with you Nothing in my dreams
Could possibly have braced me
For the feeling that faced me on Just as I looked in your eyes for the first time
I was already in love with you My heart tapped me on the shoulder
And whispered in my ear
"Don't be a pussy all your life"
